

Securing Greater Depth

Event: Securing Greater Depth

Course Leader: Chris Quigley

Audience: KS1 + 2 Teachers and Leaders

Course Outline:

Want to get deeper with depth? Then this is the course for you. We'll help you to understand:

- the four corners of depth in reading, writing and mathematics
- the best teaching methods for greater depth
- how to craft rich, sophisticated non-standard and non-routine problems and challenges
- how to use learning talks to help assess pupils' depth of understanding
- how to collect evidence of greater depth
- how to create the right conditions and mindsets for learner resilience – one of the biggest barriers to greater depth

Take away from the course:

- a deeper understanding of greater depth
- lots of examples of problems, questions and challenges all designed for deep understanding
- practical strategies to try out as soon as you get back to school

Impact on pupil outcomes:

- improve Teachers' understanding of 'Greater Depth'
- know how to provide activities and questions to promote 'Greater Depth'
- improve assessment judgements

"The whole session clarified extensively what greater depth is and how to deliver it. Fantastic value for money and time well spent."

"Clarity around the meaning of 'greater depth'. Ideas to take away and use across the age ranges. Chris' positive and enthusiastic way of presenting enabled me to maintain interest and leave feeling ready to move forward in this area."

"A real structure that I can use to move the school forward. This has been an outstanding and truly inspirational day, I am going back to school really motivated. 11/10 – funny, informative, engaging and inspiring."
